HAPPY HOLIDAYS FROM PRESIDENT LILY

We as women and Zontians are all so busy at this time of the year. We are busy with family, shopping, decorating, baking, providing services for our community and the usual household chores. Actually, I'm tired just from reading my to-do list.

Do take some time out for yourself, think of the joy of the season and savour the moment.

Merry Christmas!!!

President Lily

OTHER CLUB NEWS

Auction Results

The Finance Committee would like to thank everyone for her participation in the Annual Goods and Services Auction. We had an outstanding showing of support with all the great things brought to auction. Thank you to Barb Slumsky, Betty Lou Blixt, Gale Svenson- Campbell and Mary Ann Spanos for working as the auctioneers. The grand total for the evening was $1216!!! It was the largest amount ever brought by the auction. Thanks again and oh, what a night!!

Marcia Bliss and Anne Rizzo, Finance Co-Chairs

Amelia Earhart Movie

On November 18th, the club voted to sponsor the showing of the Amelia Earhart movie at the Reg Lena Civic Center on two dates in January (dates to be determined.) This will provide our club with an excellent opportunity to generate community awareness. We will also use the event as a fund raising opportunity to support the Zonta International Amelia Earhart Scholarship Fund.

President Lily has formed committees to take care of the various responsibilities related to the event. If you have not volunteered for a committee as yet, please consider doing so.
