THANKS TO MARY RAPPOLE FOR CREATING THIS FUN CELEBRATION OF OUR BUSY FALL!

On the first day of Christmas our Zontians gave a room

E-spec-ial-ly for wigs, made Lily's heart go zoom.

On the second day of Christmas a TEAM party was thrown.

Pizza, cookies and shirts offered to those not quite grown.

On the third day of Christmas we offered to "ring the bell"

Hoping that this would keep us from going to "_____".

On the fourth day of Christmas we rang it a second day.

For sure this will keep us going the "right way".

On the fifth day of Christmas we brought toys for the JNP.

We love the little children that are sheltered by Patty P.

On the sixth day of Christmas we made birthing kits to send.

To Afghanistan they go with our new found friend!

On the seventh day of Christmas a 32 inch flat screen was bought,

We support the love that the Birdie Turner House has taught.

On the eighth day of Christmas porch lights for Birdie T. will shine, Because we found the funds, they are not left behind.

On the ninth day of Christmas clothes to the ER for our women in need,

To demonstrate our respect and insure their dignity.

On the tenth day of Christmas a $100 ticket is sent,

To the Boy's and Girl's Club, money well spent!

On the eleventh day of Christmas, yellow hats and scarves go marching down 3rd Street,

Just to show that the Zonta Club of Jamestown does not miss a beat.

On the twelfth day of Christmas a birthing does occur,

A Z Club is born out at the Job Corp.

EVERYONE'S HELP NEEDED WITH "BABIES" MOVIE

On January 15th, our club will present the movie, Babies, at the Reg Lena Civic Center. Proceeds will benefit our birthing kit project. We need to have at least 180 people attend to break even. The tickets will be 7 dollars per person. We are also going to raffle baskets and have a 50/50 drawing to raise money.

Last year our presentation of the movie, Amelia, was very successful due in large part to the hard work of our members. We need that same commitment again from everyone. Two immediate needs are (1) someone to prepare a PowerPoint presentation on the birthing kits to show that night; (2) gathering contributions for raffle baskets. More opportunities to help will be presented at the January business meeting. Be sure to pitch in to make this fund raiser as successful as last year's.

WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP—MARCH 16, 2011

Although it seems a long time away, it takes time to make everything work smoothly. So get your thinking cap on...

This is a wonderful event where we get to honor area women who have provided leadership in their area of expertise within education, business, civic, government, health care or other areas of service. We especially look for those whose work helps advance the status of women.

Roz is asking that each of you reach into your bag of acquaintances, friends or work colleagues and pick one person you think is deserving of this award.

Send an email (RozNewton@mail.sunyc.edu) or note to Roz telling who the person is, her profession, address (snail, email, phone) and why you feel she is someone Zonta should honor.

Give us a reason to say "WOW! Gotta nominate her!"

We need the nominations by February 1, 2011!

The sooner, the better!

To avoid duplication, see the list of previous winners on page 4.

ZONTA IN THE CHRISTMAS PARADE

On December 3, over fifteen of our members and members of the Z Club at Job Corps participated in the Jamestown Christmas Parade. Our float featured Zonta's international projects and countries represented in Zonta International. Don't our sisters look great in their yellow scarves and hats made and donated by Mary Rap-pole?
